

June 1, 2005

U.S. MINERALS SIGNS SUPPLY CONTRACT WITH TAMKO ROOFING PRODUCTS

Highland, IN - U.S. Minerals has signed a 2- year, multi-million dollar contract with Joplin, MO based TAMKO Roofing Products to supply roofing granules to the TAMKO manufacturing plant in Tuscaloosa, AL.

This agreement will draw upon U.S. Minerals multiple facilities including the addition of a second, newly refurbished processing plant in Baldwin, IL This network of facilities will ensure timely delivery and an uninterrupted supply of granules.

U.S. Minerals currently operates 6 processing facilities and is one of the country's largest suppliers of roofing granules as well as coal slag abrasive products.